Who can authorise this form

If a business is authorising a claims agent, then the form must be certified by:

- an owner
 - a partner
 - a director
 - a company secretary, or
 - the manager of the company, for example, Chief Finance Officer or General Manager.

Revoking authorisation

Authorising a person or organisation to enquire, act on your behalf or receive your payment does not take away your right to deal with Services Australia about your TFES business. This authorisation can be cancelled or changed at any time.

New claimant

Before you can claim, or a claims agent can claim on your behalf, you must be registered as a Tasmanian Freight Equalisation Scheme claimant. Information and forms are available on the Services Australia website servicesaustralia.gov.au/tfes

Note

- You do not have to use a claims agent to make a claim under the Tasmanian Freight Equalisation Scheme.
 - If you use a claims agent to lodge your claims, that claims agent will receive the correspondence relating to any claims made on your behalf. This includes payment and rejection letters. The claims agent will also receive other correspondence relating to eligibility and registration of items, if they undertake these on your behalf.
 - If you use a claims agent, the claims agent must notify you in writing, within 30 days of receiving notice that your claim has been paid, of the amount of assistance paid by Services Australia in respect of any of your claims.
